

TEAM IDENTITY

A team that knows its players well, wins more often and has more fun.

This template is a great way to get your team to have a bit of fun, call out what they appreciate about each other and what's been hanging there unsaid that might unlock your team's potential.

Each team member adds their perspective and as a team, you can have a good chat about what comes up. This can be done anonymously in a shared workspace if there are sensitivities and sense of low trust.

Say... e.g. common phrases, analogies...

Think... e.g. common beliefs, understanding, and rationale

Feel... e.g. attitudes, emotions

Do... e.g. behaviours

WHAT IS THIS TEAM'S IDENTITY?

If we were a fly on the wall, what would we see, hear or feel this team say, think, feel and do?
